

Summer Internship Opportunities

 EDUCATOR CONFERENCE Educator Conference
THE WOODRUFF ARTS CENTER June 5th – 7th

Work with Alliance Theatre, High Museum, & Atlanta Symphony Orchestra staff to help in the preparation and running of our 5th annual Educator Conference.

- Time commitment: Some positions available for the two weeks prior and one week following the conference – flexible hours, minimum of 20 hours per week; Conference June 5 -7, 7a-3:30p
- Things you will learn: Arts administration, project coordination, event/conference management, dependent on interest – you will be able to attend conference sessions
- Things we are looking for: Interest and some experience in education/arts integration, some administrative experience

 Summer Camp
May 29th – August 3rd

Work in the classroom with Alliance Theatre Teaching Artists to assist in classroom tasks and putting on a new play every week of camp!

- Time commitment: 42 hours per week for 5 weeks (Sessions May 29-June 29 or July 2 –Aug 3)
- Things you will learn: classroom management, stage management, directorial techniques, acting techniques, theatre games, conflict resolution
- Things we are looking for: some experience in theatre (can be school, on stage or off), experience with children (babysitting, previous camp experience, mentorship, etc.)

Alliance Theatre Theatre for Youth and Families
May - June

kathy & ken bernhardt theatre for the very young

Professional performances for young audiences and their families. Work with these audiences by greeting patrons, giving curtain speeches, assisting house management with preshow tasks, and hosting and escorting groups.

- Time commitment: 2-3 days/week, 4 hrs/day
- Things you will learn: House management, customer service, public speaking,
- Things we are looking for: friendly attitude, problem solving, some experience with young people

Weekend Family Days and Acting Classes

Saturdays and Sundays in June and July

Acting class interns will assist in the daily operations of our acting classes by greeting parents & students and serving as a teaching assistant for our acting classes. Our family day events are part of a collaborative program working with the Alliance Theatre, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, and the High Museum of Art providing innovative, exciting, and free family programming featuring core artistic work.

- Time commitment: 1-2 days/week, up to 6 hours/day
- Things you will learn: Event coordinating, creative problem solving, customer service, classroom management, stage management, directorial techniques, acting techniques, theatre games, conflict resolution
- Things we are looking for: friendly attitude, problem solving, some experience with families is preferred. some experience in theatre (can be school, on stage or off), experience with children (babysitting, previous camp experience, mentorship, etc.)

Application online at:

https://alliancetheatre.formstack.com/forms/alliance\_theatre\_summer\_internships\_2018

Email Aierelle.McGill@alliancetheatre.org for more information.