Hello Ushers!

We've completed almost half of our 2017/2018 offsite season and you all have certainly played a huge role in its success. We've seen young Will fall in love, a hilariously loving Bubbie, and a possessed puppet! Oh my!

We're getting closer, but there's still so much more of the city to explore! That means we'll still need your help. This newsletter contains venue information so you all can continue to follow us on this journey.

The work done by Alliance ushers has been absolutely astounding. The patience, flexibility, and ongoing willingness to help is greatly appreciated. Words cannot truly express our gratitude for our hardworking ushers thus far in the season.

You all make this experience enjoyable. We look forward to seeing you all the remainder of the season and be sure to take some car photos like your fellow ushers!

Revised Cancellation Policy

Last minute cancellations or no-shows can significantly affect the experience we provide to our guests and create a hardship on Alliance Theatre staff, as well as fellow Ushers. We want all Alliance Ushers to have a great time with us and assist with our Mission, which is to expand hearts and minds on stage and off. Moving forward this season any cancellations with less than 48 hours' notice will result in a deduction of one show from your five show count towards your discounted ticket. This also includes individuals signed up as a group under one volunteer's name. It is imperative to inform the House Managers if someone in your group will not be in attendance. Any more than two absences without prior notification will result in dismissal from the Usher program. We understand emergencies happen and will certainly keep that in mind. Our intent is to create a fun and enjoyable experience for all ushers as well as our guests. Please let us know if you have any questions and thank you for your ongoing contribution to the Alliance Theatre!

To pay your 2017/2018 STARS Dues, follow this link:

<http://my.alliancetheatre.org/single/SelectSeating.aspx?p=113905>

Please note: You will not be able to sign up to Usher with us for the 2017/2018 season until STARS dues have been received

Alliance Series

2 One Act Plays: Hospice + Pointing at the Moon

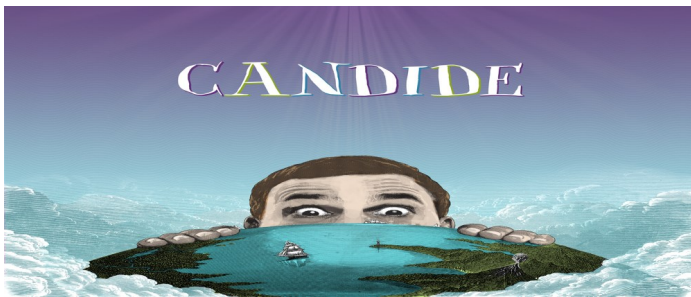

March 23rd-April 15th, 2018

Fulton County Southwest Arts Center

Written by Alliance Theatre Mellon Playwright in Residence Pearl Cleage

Directed by Timothy Douglas

Alliance Theatre Mellon Playwright in Residence Pearl Cleage offers two one-act plays separated by 30 years but connected by the presence of Jenny Anderson. Jenny's longing to understand her mother in Hospice has become the center of her life in Pointing at the Moon. As the world changes around her, Jenny must decide what she knows for sure and find a way to pass it on. Hospice was first performed in 1983 and was honored with five AUDELCO awards for achievement Off Broadway. Taken together, these two plays offer a rare glimpse of the playwright in passionate dialogue with her younger self. Come join the conversation.

Candide May 9th-20th 2018

Atlanta Symphony Hall

Book Adapted by Hugh Wheeler

Music by Leonard Bernstein

Lyrics by Richard Wilbur

Additional lyrics by Stephen Sondheim & John Latouche

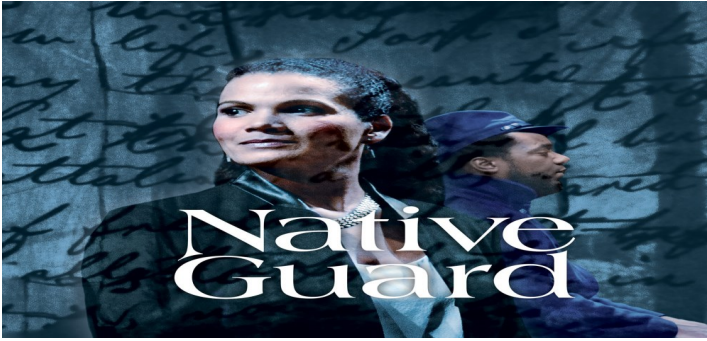

Directed by Jennings Hertz Artistic Director Susan V. Booth

Musical Direction by Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Music Director Robert Spano

Based on the novella Candide by Voltaire

The Alliance Theatre and Atlanta Symphony Orchestra will co-produce a concert staging of the Tony Award-winning musical Candide in Symphony Hall. In this popular adaptation of Voltaire's satirical novel, the naïve Candide is separated from his beloved and journeys around the world to find her while fiercely retaining his mentor's belief that "this is the best of all possible worlds" in the face of ever-increasing catastrophes. Candide will feature a cast of actors, the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, and the Atlanta Symphony Chorus in this historic Alliance Theatre/Atlanta Symphony Orchestra co-production.

Hertz Series

Native Guard

January 13th—February 4th 2018

Atlanta History Center

Written by Former U.S Poet Laureate Natasha Trethewey

Directed by Susan V. Booth

Native Guard, the Pulitzer Prize winning collection of poetry by former U.S. Poet Laureate Natasha Trethewey, will be staged this season amidst the Atlanta History Center's extraordinary Civil War collection. First adapted for the stage by the Alliance in 2014 to sold-out audiences, Native Guard juxtaposes the deeply personal experiences of Trethewey, a child of a then-illegal marriage between her African-American mother and Caucasian father living in 1960s Mississippi, with the experience of a soldier in the Native Guard, the first African-American Union troop in the Civil War who was charged with guarding white Confederate captives. Years after her mother's tragic death, Trethewey reclaims her memory, just as she reclaims the voices of the black soldiers whose service has been all but forgotten.

Sheltered

March 1st—25th 2018

Actor's Express @ The King Plow Arts Center

Written by Alix Sobler

Directed by Kimberly Senior

It is 1939, and Nazi Germany has introduced harsh race laws targeting Jews while taking over large swaths of Central Europe. Fearing the worst, a Jewish couple makes an extraordinary decision; to arrange for 50 European children to be given up by their parents and taken to safety in the United States. Each child must have an American family to house them when they arrive, but willing fosters are hard to find. As a last desperate measure, the couple endures a tense dinner party with estranged friends from a violent household in the hopes of finding a home for one more child. A suspenseful story inspired by true events that will leave audiences on the edge of their seats. Winner of the 2018 Alliance/Kendeda National Graduate Playwright Competition.

Family Series

The Jungle Book

February 8th—March 4th 2018

Porter Sanford III Performing Arts

& Community Center

By Tracey Power

Adapted from the novel by Rudyard Kipling

Directed by Rosemary Newcott

Families will love this lively, youthful, and ultimately powerful adaptation of the Rudyard Kipling classic! The Jungle Book is the story of Mowgli, a boy abandoned to the jungle, who must learn to find his place within the longstanding community of animals. Taught by Baloo the bear, Bagheera the black panther, and Akela the old wolf, Mowgli is enlightened with the sacred master words of the hunting people: "We be of one blood, you and I." However, Shere Khan the tiger does not believe that Mowgli is part of the jungle. Mowgli must rally his animal friends to stand up to the fierce Khan and restore peace to the jungle. The Jungle Book is a moving story of finding your family in untraditional places. Staged in the 500-seat, family-friendly theater of Decatur's Porter Sanford III Performing Arts and Community Center.
