News and Updates from the Patron Experience Team

Hello Ushers!

After getting things kicked off with The Dancing Granny, we are ready to tackle the first half of our 2017/2018 Season at full speed!

With the huge undertaking that is our off site season, it's only fitting to reflect on the Mission of the Alliance Theatre. "Atlanta's national theater, expanding hearts and minds on stage and off." Ladies and gentlemen, we certainly are expanding this season in more ways than one. We have the opportunity to expand our own knowledge of different cultural and educational institutions we ourselves would not typically go to, and expand the hearts and minds of new audiences in the process. We hope you are just as excited about this opportunity as we are! Our volunteer ushers play an integral role in our patrons' experience and we sincerely thank you for joining us on this journey as we explore and travel all over Atlanta.

This newsletter includes pertinent information regarding the shows, its specific venue, and volunteer instructions. While reading you will probably ask "What about A Christmas Carol?!" Don't you worry! Atlanta's favorite Christmas tradition will be setting up shop at the Cobb Energy Performing Arts Center! However, for this show, they will be utilizing their Usher Corps rather than our own. If you are interested in ushering for A Christmas Carol, please see information on how to apply on the "Venue Specific Information" page.

And don't forget our benefits for our Ushers, which include 20% off AT classes, 15% off AT single tix, and 1 complimentary ticket for the current season for every 5 times you usher!

We can't wait to see you all this season, all over Atlanta!

-Scot Fenton & Destiny Stancil

Revised Cancellation Policy

Last minute cancellations or no-shows can significantly affect the experience we provide to our guests and create a hardship on Alliance Theatre staff, as well as fellow Ushers. We want all Alliance Ushers to have a great time with us and assist with our Mission, which is to expand hearts and minds on stage and off. Moving forward this season any cancellations with less than 48 hours' notice will result in a deduction of one show from your five show count towards your discounted ticket. This also includes individuals signed up as a group under one volunteer's name. It is imperative to inform the House Managers if someone in your group will not be in attendance. Any more than two absences without prior notification will result in dismissal from the Usher program. We understand emergencies happen and will certainly keep that in mind. Our intent is to create a fun and enjoyable experience for all ushers as well as our guests. Please let us know if you have any questions and thank you for your ongoing contribution to the Alliance Theatre!

Shakespeare in Love

August 30th-September 24th, 2017

Conant Performing Arts Center at Oglethorpe University

Written by Marc Norman and Tom Stoppard

Adapted for Stage by Paddy Cunneen

Directed by Richard Garner

Described as “an absolute joy from beginning to end” (Daily Express), Shakespeare in Love is a new play based on the 1998 film that won seven Academy Awards including Best Picture. Young Will Shakespeare has writer's block... the deadline for his new play is fast approaching but he's in desperate need of inspiration. That is, until he finds his muse – Viola. This beautiful young woman is Will's greatest admirer and will stop at nothing (including breaking the law) to appear in his next play. Against a bustling background of mistaken identity, ruthless scheming, and backstage theatrics, Will's love for Viola quickly blossoms and inspires him to write his greatest masterpiece. Georgia Shakespeare Artistic Director Richard Garner directs this love letter to William Shakespeare in his company's former home at Oglethorpe University.

Crossing Delancey—October 7th-29th, 2017

Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta

Written by Susan Sandler

Directed by Leora Morris

The play that inspired the hit film, Crossing Delancey is the story of Izzy, a beautiful, intelligent, single young woman, and her 80-year-old Bubbie, who is determined to see her granddaughter get married before she dies. Giving Cupid a nudge, this irascible granny hires a matchmaker and sets out to find her granddaughter the perfect mate. But will Sam, the neighborhood pickle man, be the kind of man Izzy has in mind? Performed at the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta's warm and intimate Morris & Rae Frank Theatre, this hilarious and heartwarming play takes a bemused look at the clash between traditional Jewish-American immigrant culture and the more modern aspirations of the next generation.

Hand to God

October 20th-November 12th, 2017

Dad's Garage

Written by Robert Askins

Directed by Marc Masterson

Described as “darkly delightful” (The New York Times), Hand to God – the irreverent puppet comedy, Tony Award nominee, and the most produced play in American regional theater in the 2016/17 season – makes its Atlanta debut. After the death of his father, meek Jason finds an outlet for his anxiety at the Christian Puppet Ministry. Jason’s complicated relationships with the town pastor, the school bully, the girl next door, and—most especially—his mother are thrown into upheaval when Jason’s puppet, Tyrone, takes on a shocking personality all its own. Produced in association with Dad’s Garage and performed – appropriately? – in their new theater space in a renovated church, Hand to God explores the startlingly fragile nature of faith, morality, and the ties that bind us. Directed by former Alliance Theatre Associate Artistic Director Kent Gash.

Alice Between

November 12th-19th, 2017

Rich Auditorium at the Woodruff Arts Center

Written by Neely Gossett

Directed by Rosemary Newcott

In the beloved children’s novel Alice’s Adventures in Wonderland, Alice finds herself in a world full of strange and wondrous incongruities...much like what the world is like for most middle school students! Atlanta Playwright and Alliance/Kendeda Playwriting Competition finalist Neeley Gossett’s modern take on the story finds Alice on her first day as a 7th grader in a new middle school. Gossett is able to tap into a dark humor that is especially satisfying and very connected to the nightmare and folly that is both Wonderland and Middle School. Written for and with middle schoolers, Alice Between will be performed in the Rich Auditorium at the Woodruff Arts Center.
